

SEDGWICK COUNTY COMMISSIONER
EMERGENCY BOARD MEETING
JUNE 5, 2020

Meeting was called to order by Chairman Donald Schneider with Howard McCormick, Mark Turner and Christy Beckman present in office and Kelly Lowery, Attorney; Carrie Hartwell, Chad Hoschouer & Cameron Britton, Town of Julesburg; Tasha Harris, Human Services; Nick Goshe & Karla Durnker, Sedgwick County Hospital present by phone via zoom.

Schneider presented information about the Cares Act Relief Fund. There is $191,642 available for Sedgwick County and the Board has a 55% / 45% split of the funds allotting $105,403 to the county and $86,238 to be split between the municipalities with Julesburg receiving 72%, Ovid receiving 15.6% and Sedgwick receiving 12.3%. Schneider explained that funds will be drawn down by each entity for COVID related expenses and will be available for programs needed for COVID relief.

Discussion was held and questions were asked. Beckman will send out the IGA to each municipality for review and signatures. Schneider asked that there be a quick turnaround so we can get this put into motion.

McCormick moved to adjourn the meeting. Turner second, carried.
