

SEDGWICK COUNTY COMMISSIONER
EMERGENCY BOARD MEETING
MARCH 19, 2020

Meeting was called to order under the Emergency Meeting Act by Pro-Tem Chairman Mark Turner with Donald Schneider by phone, Howard McCormick and Christy Beckman present.

McCormick moved to approve the agenda with the addition of county buildings / closures and continued public closure and processes discussion. Turner second, carried.

McCormick discussed a different procedure to collect the mail for the courthouse employees to further protect the employees from the COVID-19. Discussion was then held on the court days in the courthouse since they have not been mandated to limited gatherings. McCormick suggested allowing all of the non-essential employees to stay home on those court days. McCormick would like the Board to put a public announcement out to the community about the guidelines we are following.

McCormick moved to approve the adopting the CDC and Colorado Public Health Guidelines for prevention of COVID-19. Schneider second, carried.

Schneider moved to approve Resolution #2020-019, Declaration of Local Disaster Emergency. McCormick second, carried.
